

Mondial Assistance puts people at the heart of its new logo
Caring – Professional - Connected - Proactive
Mondial Assistance announces and asserts its values

Paris June 8th, 2006 – Today, Mondial Assistance Group, international leader in travel insurance and assistance, unveiled its new logo. This new graphic signature maintains several of the original logo's essential elements from 1974, the year the Mondial Assistance brand was created.

While the red colour, symbolic of the emergency nature of the Group's business, and the essential graphic style were preserved, the new logo now incorporates a humanlike figure at its centre, a reminder that people are more than ever at the heart of all of the Group's activities. Moreover, a new letter font both energises and modernises the « Mondial Assistance » signature.

This new logo will serve as the Group's first building block on which it intends to develop its international identity in the future.

Asserted values

Trust in Mondial Assistance is based on the professionalism of its staff members - their proactiveness, their network and connections, and the care with which they deliver top quality services. The Mondial Assistance brand conveys these values, all simultaneously shared by staff, clients, service providers and shareholders, and applied coherently throughout the world and in all Group entities.

All Group companies will gradually use the new logo in their different communication material. And, as of today, the majority of the Group's world-wide internet sites will display this new graphic signature.

« Our new logo fully reflects the human nature of our business, which is above all about serving people. Our corporate values reflect the unique character and personality of our company, a culture which powers all the services and capabilities we bring to our customers. », declares Klaus Dührkop, President of the Executive Committee of Mondial Assistance Group.
